When a major snowstorm breaks out during a routine at-home birth, cutting off all communication with the outside world, midwife Sibyl Danforth is forced to make an impossible decision. Adapted for the stage by the author from his bestselling novel of the same name – an early selection of Oprah's Book Club – this gripping tale of suspense and riveting courtroom drama will keep audiences on the edge of their seats . Tickets are $ 35 per person, reservations required by 11/01/19 and payment is due by 12/23/19
