Make Friday Night Synagogue Night.

December 30th, 1941

Dear Friend:-

President Roosevelt has issued a proclamation calling on all of us to devote the first of the New Year to a National Day of Prayer.

We have, therefore, thought it most appropriate to arrange a special service on Friday evening, January 2nd, at 8 promptly, to join with our fellow-citizens of other faiths and to give expression to our patriotic fervor in these days. Please set all other matters aside to perform a religious and patriotic act by your presence at worship Friday evening.

Bring your family and friends. A special address by our Rabbi entitled "Remember!" will be delivered in keeping with the nature of the service.

Adath Israel Congregation

January 7, 1942.

Dear Friend:

Won't you join the ever-increasing number of those who make Friday night Synagogue night, and by their attendance at service derive inspiration to carry on these days? Here is the program for the next three Sabbaths:

1. Friday evening, January 9, 8 p. m.:
"Red, White, and Blue Herring—An Answer."

2. Friday evening, January 16, 8 p. m.:
A review of I. Fineman's recent novel "Jacob."

3. Friday evening, January 23, 8 p. m.:
15th Congregational Anniversary Sabbath. Guest speaker, Dr. Victor E. Reichert, Rabbi of Rockdale Ave. Congregation, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Be sure to come with family and friends.

ADATH ISRAEL CONGREGATION.
